

Chancery Employment Opportunities October 18, 2017

Social Justice Ministry Coordinator (Full-time)

The Social Justice Ministry Coordinator partners with community based organizations, to provide relationship building, leadership development and advocacy training to parishes across the Archdiocese on issues of life, justice and peace, with an emphasis on immigration issues such as immigrant reform and immigrant dignity. While coordinating and strengthening national and local issue campaigns from USCCB and California Catholic Conference on life, economic justice and human rights issues. He/she also coordinates lobbying efforts and education of Catholic parishioners offering workshops and trainings to various parish groups on Catholic Social Teaching, Charity vs. Justice and Faithful Citizenship.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS:

- Excellent communications skills
- High Integrity, flexibility and openness to establish credibility and relationships.
- Ability to facilitate discussions and decisions are also essential qualities.
- The candidate must be a practicing Catholic in good standing.
- Strong knowledge of or insight into the local community, or be capable of quickly and effectively developing this understanding.

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS, CERTIFICATIONS

- At least 5 years of experience in advocacy, community organizing and policy development and analysis and/or Bachelor Degree in related field
- Knowledge and commitment to Catholic social teachings, and direct experience working at the diocesan or parish level

If you are interested in any of these positions please contact:

Patrick Schmidt by phone at 415-614-5538 or forward you resume to **careers@sfarch.org**

Pursuant to the San Francisco Fair Chance Ordinance, we will consider for employment qualified applicants with arrest and conviction records.