

Cards of Mercy: Easter

Cards of Mercy are a way to reach out to those in prison with messages of kindness and love. Students are asked to prepare cards for holidays throughout the year, which will be delivered to incarcerated individuals. This project is part of the Restorative Justice Ministry.

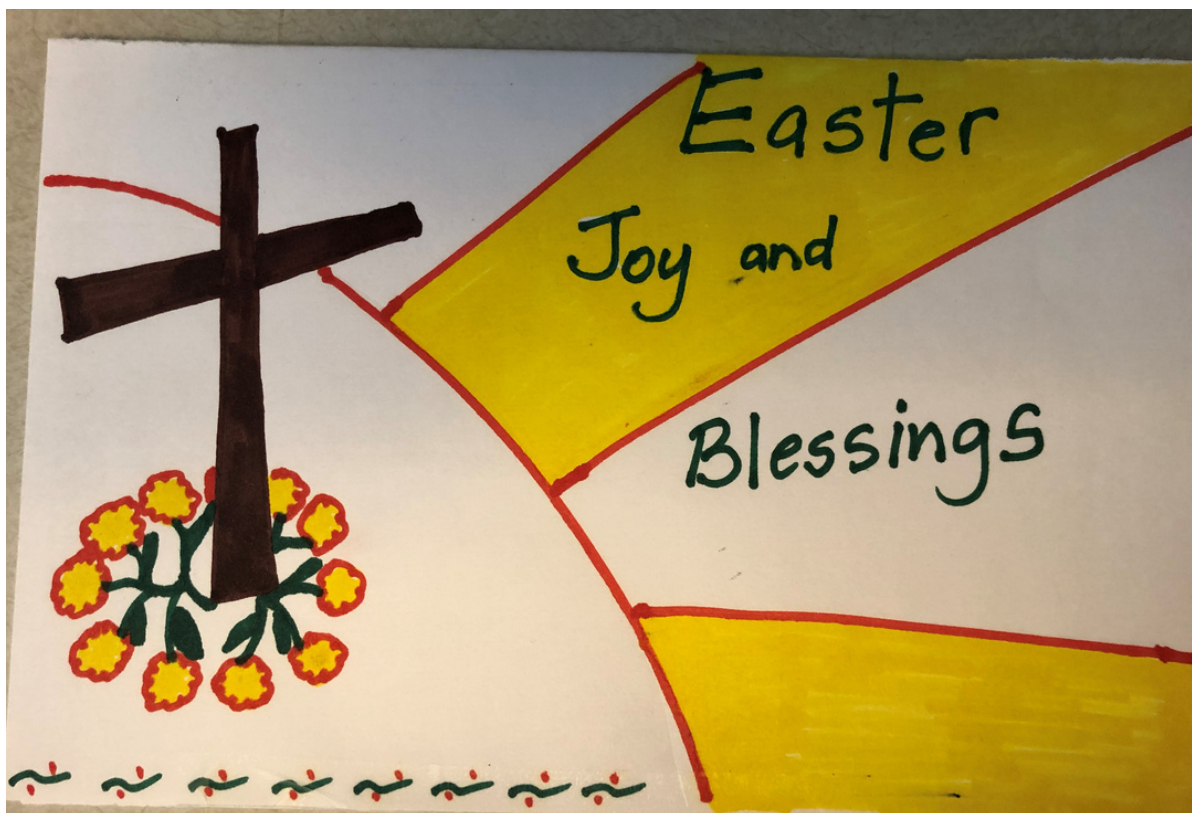

Cards should be sent to the Chancery (1 Peter Yorke Way, San Francisco, CA 94109). These can be mailed or delivered in person. Any questions, contact Julio Escobar by email at escobarj@sfarch.org or by phone at (415) 614-5572.

Front Page

For the front page of the card, you will draw a colorful design to represent the holiday.

Back Page

Inside Bottom

On the bottom of the inside page, each student should write a personalized message to the incarcerated person.

The greeting should say something like, "Dear Friend" or "Dear Brother or Sister". This message can be religious or secular, but should be optimistic and cheerful. It can express holiday-related messages, as well as general encouragement.

The goal is to spread love and the joy of Easter.

The card can be signed with a student's first name and grade, with a closing such as "Love, Kayla, a 9th Grade Student". The last name should not be included.
